

ASL Job Description

Position: Warehouse Operative

Department: Warehouse & Logistics

Here at ASL we pride ourselves on the highest standard of quality, adopting a work hard/ play hard ethic. It's a fast-paced environment where no two days are the same and we reward our employees for keeping pace! ASL work and live by our company values and award those who exceed these values. We have small body of staff which means we have sociable, warm and friendly environment. With competitive pay packages and a host of perks provided by our reward partners, we welcome you to join our team and further your career in the aerospace industry!

What we are looking for:

- Good customer service skills
- Able to work under your own initiative
- Able to complete repetitive tasks
- Proactive and have a good attention to detail
- Good teamwork
- Physically fit and able to undertake manual lifting when required
- Good computer skills
- An interest in aviation, preferred but not essential

Responsibilities & Scope of Work:

- Stock control; Booking in stock, picking stock, stock checking
- Operating our in-house computerised database/barcode system.
- Loading, unloading lorries & warehouse racking (Counterbalance licence training will be provided)
- Ensuring the working environment is always kept organised and tidy.
- Driving

Essential Skills:

- Clean driving licence

Preferred Experience not essential:

- Forklift Truck
- MEWP Scissor Lift